

In your bag is an artifact that was near and dear to the Glockner family. Study the artifact and consider what it is, how it was used by various members of the immediate family, and/or perhaps how it was passed down from generation to generation. Or perhaps consider how it was acquired, used to help the family come to America, or even held by all of the various hands both in their homeland as well as in America. Has this artifact helped, hindered, or simply brought comfort to a member of the family?

Without discussing anything about your artifact with your group members, consider the history of this item and its relation to Glockner family and their culture. In a couple of minutes, each of you will begin a short story introducing this artifact and its relevance to the family. You may write in any genre you like, but please be creative in your attempt. When you study this item, how do you connect it to the Glockner family? Serious, funny, informative, sad, etc. It is now up to you to blend the family and artifact together....You will have between 5-7 minutes to write this introduction. Have fun!!

In your bag is an artifact that was near and dear to the Moore family. Study the artifact and consider what it is, how it was used by various members of the immediate family, and/or perhaps how it was passed down from generation to generation. Or perhaps consider how it was acquired, used to help the family come to America, or even held by all of the various hands both in their homeland as well as in America. Has this artifact helped, hindered, or simply brought comfort to a member of the family?

Without discussing anything about your artifact with your group members, consider the history of this item and its relation to Moore family and their culture. In a couple of minutes, each of you will begin a short story introducing this artifact and its relevance to the family. You may write in any genre you like, but please be creative in your attempt. When you study this item, how do you connect it to the Moore family? Serious, funny, informative, sad, etc. It is now up to you to blend the family and artifact together....You will have between 5-7 minutes to write this introduction. Have fun!!

In your bag is an artifact that was near and dear to the Gumpertz family. Study the artifact and consider what it is, how it was used by various members of the immediate family, and/or perhaps how it was passed down from generation to generation. Or perhaps consider how it was acquired, used to help the family come to America, or even held by all of the various hands both in their homeland as well as in America. Has this artifact helped, hindered, or simply brought comfort to a member of the family?

Without discussing anything about your artifact with your group members, consider the history of this item and its relation to Gumpertz family and their culture. In a couple of minutes, each of you will begin a short story introducing this artifact and its relevance to the family. You may write in any genre you like, but please be creative in your attempt. When you study this item, how do you connect it to the Gumpertz family? Serious, funny, informative, sad, etc. It is now up to you to blend the family and artifact together....You will have between 5-7 minutes to write this introduction. Have fun!!

In your bag is an artifact that was near and dear to the Rogarshevsky family. Study the artifact and consider what it is, how it was used by various members of the immediate family, and/or perhaps how it was passed down from generation to generation. Or perhaps consider how it was acquired, used to help the family come to America, or even held by all of the various hands both in their homeland as well as in America. Has this artifact helped, hindered, or simply brought comfort to a member of the family?

Without discussing anything about your artifact with your group members, consider the history of this item and its relation to Rogarshevsky family and their culture. In a couple of minutes, each of you will begin a short story introducing this artifact and its relevance to the family. You may write in any genre you like, but please be creative in your attempt. When you study this item, how do you connect it to the Rogarshevsky family? Serious, funny, informative, sad, etc. It is now up to you to blend the family and artifact together....You will have between 5-7 minutes to write this introduction. Have fun!!

In your bag is an artifact that was near and dear to the Baldizzi family. Study the artifact and consider what it is, how it was used by various members of the immediate family, and/or perhaps how it was passed down from generation to generation. Or perhaps consider how it was acquired, used to help the family come to America, or even held by all of the various hands both in their homeland as well as in America. Has this artifact helped, hindered, or simply brought comfort to a member of the family?

Without discussing anything about your artifact with your group members, consider the history of this item and its relation to Baldizzi family and their culture. In a couple of minutes, each of you will begin a short story introducing this artifact and its relevance to the family. You may write in any genre you like, but please be creative in your attempt. When you study this item, how do you connect it to the Baldizzi family? Serious, funny, informative, sad, etc. It is now up to you to blend the family and artifact together....You will have between 5-7 minutes to write this introduction. Have fun!!